To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend to you Chris Pizzuto as you consider candidates to hire within your firm. I have known Chris since 2004, at which time I became the Director of the First Regional Library, a five-county public library cooperative located in northwestern Mississippi. I retired from that position in 2013, but have remained keenly interested in his work to provide both technical, display and office furnishings to the Library's fourteenth branch - which opened to the public in 2014.

Chris worked by my side as the Library System as we opened or renovated public libraries in Southaven, Horn Lake, Walls, Batesville, Crenshaw, Como, Sardis and Oxford, Mississippi. His command of the technical furnishings such as book shelving and display units was always spot on and reliable; while at the same time, Chris was able to use his creative juices to turn any space into an inviting library environment with his suggestions of special seating and office furnishings.

I have known Chris Pizzuto to be a man of great integrity. He went the extra mile for me as a customer and for other library directors around the State to whom I recommended him. He was always respectful of my time and worked within my budgetary constraints.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions or need any further information about Chris.

Sincerely,

Catherine A. Nathan
